

EU-JAPAN ECONOMIC PARTNERSHIP AGREEMENT

HOW WILL EUROPEAN FARMERS BENEFIT?

JAPAN

Agri-food exports to Japan – € 5.7 bn
(4th biggest market for EU agri exports in the world)

85% of EU agri-food products exported to Japan will be liberalised over time

Slashed tariffs = access for 50 500 t of EU beef, virtually free trade access for EU pigmeat

TARIFF REMOVAL

Wine & sparkling wine

Alcoholic beverages (sherry, vermouth, cider)

Pork

Processed pork

Hard cheese (Parmigiano Reggiano, Gouda, Cheddar, etc.)

Soft and fresh cheese (Mozzarella, Feta)

Beef

BEFORE

15%

15%

Complex import system + tariff (average 4.3%)

8.5%

Up to 29.8%

Up to 29.8%

38.5%

AFTER

0% from day one

0% from day one

Practically free access

0%

0% after 15 years

Duty free quota equivalent to current EU exports

Down to 9% over 15 years

MORE THAN 200 EUROPEAN GEOGRAPHICAL INDICATIONS

► Japan would recognise 205 European Geographical Indications so that only products with this status would be allowed to be sold in Japan under the corresponding name.

Products like Tiroler Speck, Münchener beer, Jambon d'Ardenne, Polska Wódka fully recognised on the Japanese market